A wonderful journey leaves you speechless, then turns you into a storyteller ...

... a notion that no other type of travel is as intensely fulfilling as a river cruise - and our aspiration guiding us like the North Star when we start planning the next travel season. For precisely those special moments that you will certainly be talking about for years to come.

In addition to many popular and well-established routes along the Rhine, the Danube or the Rhône, there are some marvelous new routes and destinations - and even another ship, the PORTO MIRANTE. Its name also provides a clue about something new: from Porto we are journeying along the Douro for the first time. You can look forward to one of the most beautiful regions in Portugal and thus to many cultural highlights, a magnificent natural experience and historic wine terraces. For example, the area around Pinhão, where the steep slopes are home to the most famous port wine companies in the world. Or the Spanish city of Salamanca, where the Universidad de Salamanca, one of the oldest universities in Europe, awaits you.

Also new: Our VIVA ENJOY, you will discover special voyages in 2025. Look forward to a city trip to Belgium and the Netherlands starting and finishing in Amsterdam. From there, we will head for Utrecht, Brussels and Antwerp, among other places. Additionally we are also setting off for a short cruise on the Danube with VIVA ENJOY. You can explore two of the most beautiful cities in Europe, Vienna and Budapest. And finally, for Paris lovers: we have added another overnight stay in the City of Love to our popular Normandy voyage, which takes you from Paris via Rouen to Le Havre and back to Paris.

Whether it's a famous metropolis, romantic riverside villages or fascinating landscapes – we look forward to an eventful season. Above all, we look forward to taking you to the most beautiful places in Europe on one of our ships and treat you to culinary highlights around the clock with VIVA All-Inclusive – as always at no extra cost, but always with a special finesse.

ENJOY THE MOMENT!

Profile

Where are you from?

Serbia

How long have you been Chef?

5 years

How long have you been working on a VIVA ship?

3 years

What are your hobbies?

Singing, traveling and sports

Tell us something about yourself:

Last year, I started recording humorous videos with the galley. As a result, we were able to achieve a social media reach of over 100,000 followers. With the videos, I show that working on a ship is fun. Due to this engagement, I was already featured on Serbian television.

Question 1: What are the challenges you face on the VIVA MOMENTS with 2 restaurants?

Every guest is unique and has different preferences and tastes when it comes to their food. We have to be particularly mindful of certain intolerances and allergies to ensure that everyone is satisfied with their meal. An additional challenge is that we have to serve approximately 170 hot meals simultaneously three times a day.

Question 2: What is your favorite dish? And what dish do you most enjoy cooking?

I don't have a favorite dish, but as a chef, I enjoy the taste of all the dishes I prepare. However, I love cooking French cuisine.

Question 3: What are the duties of an Executive Chef?

Every day may seem similar, but due to new challenges, it's always different. With weekly changing guests on board, it's uncertain what intolerances or special requirements we may encounter. It requires comprehensive organization, taking responsibility for the galley, and ensuring that the crew and guests are catered for. Due to the variety of dishes served daily for lunch and dinner, I coordinate the ordering of ingredients for each menu and organize storage.

What are your hobbies?

Soccer (watch and play)

Tell us something about yourself:

I hate fish, but I'm quite skilled at preparing fish dishes. Despite my dislike, I have to taste these dishes repeatedly because of my job. It's awful for me every time.

Question 1: What are the challenges you face on the VIVA TWO with 3 restaurants compared to one on land?

While the cooking remains the same, the biggest differences lie in planning and organization. On land, there's more flexibility, such as sourcing fresh ingredients daily or acquiring any missing ones. On a ship, it's a different situation. Ordering and delivery must be carefully planned as they need to fit into the workflows. Additionally, you must keep in mind that you're responsible for multiple restaurants on board.

Question 2: What is your favorite dish? And what dish do you most enjoy cooking?

Personally, I don't have a favorite dish. However, I enjoy preparing all sorts of meat dishes. I relish exploring and combining different flavors while cooking.

Question 3: What was your favorite moment during your time on our ship?

There are a few. One of them occurred during the farewell cocktail when a guest suddenly stood up and angrily asked who the chef was. I was surprised, stepped forward, and all 150 guests applauded and cheered. Later, I found out it was orchestrated by the guest. The appreciation was something beautiful for me and my team.

Tell us something about yourself:

I've had a minor role on Italian television. Additionally, I studied engineering, but my greater passion lies in the arts. Furthermore, I won the first prize at the Trento Festival of Economics in 2007.

Question 1: You've been part of the Customer Service Team of VIVA Cruises, how did the decision come about for you to embark on a new path as a Cruise Director?

Through my work on the phone, I already got to know our customers, and later met them at events on board. They entrust us with the most important moments of their lives when they travel with us. Therefore, I decided to contribute to making their experiences on board something unique.

Question 2: What are you most looking forward to on board?

I'm looking forward to ensuring that our customers enjoy the experience to the fullest by using my experience in Customer Service. Sometimes it's better to respond immediately to the needs of the guests and prevent small misunderstandings before they become problems.

Question 3: Throughout your time at VIVA Cruises, what was your fondest memory?

My fondest memory was my hiring at VIVA Cruises. Despite having no experience in the industry, but a great passion for the cruise industry, someone believed in me. From the beginning, the company gave me a lot of trust, autonomy, and the freedom to express myself.

River-conscious Sustainability is of paramount importance to us

Behold the magical beauty of the passing shore landscapes - verdant foliage, quaint villages and awe-inspiring rock formations mirrored in the placid waters. These indelible impressions evolve into cherished memories, hence our unwavering dedication to the preservation of these invaluable natural treasures and responsible resource management. At VIVA Cruises, we take pride in environmentally conscious travel on Europe's most magnificent rivers, beginning with conscientious route planning and eco-friendly practices on board, including the elimination of unnecessary plastic waste. In lieu of disposable water bottles, our guests are furnished with reusable bottles, easily replenished at conveniently located water dispensers. Our gastronomic offerings showcase a balanced variety of vegetarian, vegan and dairy-free options, with tableside service and cooked-to-order meals minimizing food wastage. Conscious of our ecological impact, we often power down our ships' engines while docked, favoring shore power to reduce carbon consumption and emissions. We prioritize the use of virtually sulfur-free GTL fuel, bolstered by biofuels for even greater eco-balance. Our aspiration is solely to create everlasting memories, not carbon footprints - leaving only an indelible imprint in the hearts of our guests.

We assume our responsibility for people, nature and the river. Convince yourself and find out more about our philosophy.

Our on board technology is firmly rooted in a sense of conscientiousness and accountability.

With all our ships, we steer towards your desires - but also towards the protection of our environment. Our new ships comply with the U-Stage-V emission standard thanks to their new exhaust system. This meets all requirements for the Green Award certification. This certificate is awarded by the independent Green Award Foundation for the use of sustainable technologies and special safety and quality measures.

Good for the Environment:

- synthetic GTL fuel, easily biodegradable
- reduction of local emissions (nitrogen oxides, particulate matter) and lower odor pollution
- use of shore power, whenever possible
- almost exclusive use of furniture made from 100% reclaimed wood
- responsible route planning
- plastic reduction (e.g. through water dispensers and reusable bottles)
- offer of vegetarian and vegan dishes, as well as dairy alternatives

On some of our journeys, you'll experience unique entertainment. On board, prepare for a sensory feast where you can immerse yourself in the fascinating world of Balkan folklore. Embark on a musical journey filled with passion, rhythm, and tradition. Let yourself be enchanted by the vibrant costumes, pulsating sounds, and warm hospitality, experiencing unforgettable moments full of joy and excitement. Or how about an exclusive concert featuring classical music? A local artist will captivate you musically while you enjoy the elegant atmosphere. This, along with many other exciting entertainments, awaits you on our ships. Get ready to be surprised!

Traveling by ship is like traveling to experience.

A journey by ship is a unique way of traveling. Every day brings a new port, a new city, and each time, the gaze falls upon fascinating landscapes in the most beautiful regions of Europe. The best part: Your premium hotel always travels with you - along with a crew that aims to pamper you with exclusive service and exquisite cuisine. Thus, every journey becomes an experience of indulgence - and your ship becomes your personal sanctuary.

Where memories find a solid anchor in every port.

Traveling primarily means being on the move. Passing through fascinating landscapes - or delving into lively cities, often just a stone's throw away. At the end of each day, our crew spoils you with excellent service. So you can savor the moment when your day's discoveries turn into memories, right in the harbor.

Triple World Heritage Site, but an unique experience.

With its warm light, rich colors of ripe grapes, and late summer fragrance, the Douro Valley offers a dreamy backdrop for an adventurous cruise, especially during the late summer months. The scenic and cultural diversity has led to this region being classified as an UNESCO World Heritage Site three times: with the Côa Valley National Park, the wine-growing area around Pinhão, and the old town of Porto, which is also the starting point of your river cruise. Romantic old town alleys and numerous baroque churches and bridges characterize the cityscape. The latter are best admired from the water. Your journey takes you eastward via Leverinho and Peso da Régua to Pinhão, where a visit to the famous Quinta de Avesada winery is a must. Another highlight: Salamanca in north-western Spain. The city, with Celtic roots, is mainly known for its intricate sandstone architecture.

Discover more on your journey

The anticipation of an upcoming journey is often just as exciting as the journey itself. Before you board, you can expect a service that makes your river cruise an unforgettable experience. In 2025, we offer pre- and post-programs for river cruises on the Douro, giving you the opportunity to discover more of the beauty of Portugal with additional days. Turn your journey from start to finish into a true feast for the senses.

Book with us for your Douro River journey and add a flight and/or transfer:

- Flights to/from Porto in Economy Class
- Transfer from and to Porto Airport to PORTO MIRANTE

Would you also like to explore Portugal for a few days before or after your Douro River journey? Then book with us an additional carefully selected hotel:

- 4-star hotel in Porto's historic city center or in Lisbon
- Up to 3 nights before or after your river cruise

For personalized advice and planning, please feel free to contact us at +49 211 274 032 50 or via email at info@viva-cruises.com.

Note: Flight and hotel availability will be checked upon booking. Prices of flights and hotels may vary depending on the departure date.

From romanticism to modernity.

Whether medieval towns, lonely castles, half-timbered architecture, historic sites, or majestic cliffs - no waterway is as synonymous with river romance as the Rhine. Especially between Bingen, Rüdesheim, and Koblenz, the UNESCO World Heritage Site "Upper Middle Rhine Valley" is considered the epitome of the romantic Rhine landscape, with its impressive cultural landscape and the legendary Loreley Rock. But modernity also reveals itself on our route: While Düsseldorf awaits you with the Königsallee, one of Europe's most famous shopping streets, and Frankfurt's fascinating business skyline resembles New York a bit, Amsterdam beckons with its charming canals, while Rotterdam boasts modern architecture. In short, on the Rhine, Main, and Moselle, you'll get to know the heart of Europe at its most beautiful and diverse.

Excursions – Rhine, Main und Moselle

Antwerp

City Trip to Bruges

Explore Bruges, the capital of West Flanders province. In the Middle Ages, Bruges was a significant trading center and a member of the Hanseatic League, which you can recognize in the well-preserved medieval city center. It is also an UNESCO World Heritage Site. Let yourself be enchanted by the impressive architecture through the old town, which is almost like a single museum. From the Beguinage of 1320 to the Church of Our Lady with artworks by Michelangelo and other artists, passing numerous canals, and finally arriving at the Grand Place with its Belfry, there is much to admire in Bruges.

Traben-Trarbach

Underground Tour

Around 1900, Traben-Trarbach was one of the most important wine trading centers in Europe, alongside Bordeaux. The high demand for Riesling wines, especially from Great Britain and overseas, made the city a flourishing hub of wine trade. Large areas of the city center are underlaid with multi-story cellars, some exceeding 100 meters in length. Exploring these cellar vaults provides an intriguing insight into the history of winemaking and the old cellar techniques used in the production of Riesling.

World
natural wonders

- The queen of rivers
- Unique culture and history of Central Europe
- Wachau and Danube loop
- Historical cities
- Connection of several countries

Majestic, historical and magical.

The Danube is the second-longest river in Europe. It traverses ten countries, spanning approximately 2,850 kilometers, and connects many diverse cultures. The first roughly 600 kilometers take the Danube past charming German cities like Regensburg or Passau, before it becomes one of Europe's most significant trade routes, particularly in Austria. Narrow gorges and vast valley landscapes with a fantastic flora and fauna create an unique category of experience here. One of these expansive plains is the Vienna Basin: Whether it's the Danube monarchy, Danube wave, or the modern Donau-City, hardly any other city is as closely linked to the Danube as Vienna. Several river miles further east, you'll reach Budapest, the largest city on the Danube. The special thing is that most of Budapest's beautiful buildings are located along the riverbank, including the Parliament, inaugurated in 1904, which is one of the largest buildings in the world.

Southern France for marveling, discovering and enjoying.

Some things in life are reliable - like a cruise on the Rhône. For those seeking contrasting landscapes and imposing valley plains, passing fragrant sunflower fields, orchards, and Provencal lavender fields, and discovering small dreamy villages perched on rocky outcrops in one of France's largest wine regions, this is the place to be. From Lyon, your senses will be ignited with scents, light and natural spectacles, the charm of historical architecture, an excellent cuisine, and the bouquets of the world's best wines. From the Lyon basin, you head south to reach Tournon, Viviers, Avignon, and finally Arles or Martigues before the Rhône flows into the Mediterranean a few miles further. In summary, the Rhône is a cultural, culinary, and scenic event to marvel at and enjoy.

Places of longing and urban impressions.

The French capital, proud port city, charming villages - stops on our river cruise on the Seine and thus on one of the most famous rivers in the world. Discover Paris with all its famous sights such as Notre-Dame, the Eiffel Tower, the Arc de Triomphe, and its lively streets, which make the city on the Seine a place of longing. With these first impressions in mind, you set off to explore Normandy, or rather: one of the most beautiful regions of the country. Via the charming village of Les Andelys, with only 8,000 inhabitants, you reach Rouen: The city takes you on a journey through medieval alleys and densely packed half-timbered houses. Finally, you reach Le Havre, the only city in the world to be designated an UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2005 due to its modern urban architecture. Rest assured - a river cruise couldn't be more eventful.

Our freshly renovated SWISS RUBY shines in a whole new light in 2025. While the technical systems and interior have been updated to the latest standards, the timeless elegance and traditional charm have been preserved to maintain its legacy as a Cultural Ship. With 32 double cabins and additional 8 new suites, the SWISS RUBY offers a familiar, cozy atmosphere with a limited number of up to 80 guests. And it is precisely this successful balance between modernization, vintage style, and exclusivity that makes the SWISS RUBY an unique gem in our VIVA fleet.

General Terms and Conditions¹

1. Conclusion of package travel contract / liability for fellow passengers

1.1 The following applies to all bookings through any channel:

- a) The offer underlying the contract is based on the travel proposal and supplementary information provided by VIVA Cruises for the respective package travel (hereinafter "Package Tour", "Tour" or "Package"), provided that these are available to the customer at the time of booking.
- b) The customer shall be responsible for all contractual obligations of fellow passengers for whom he² makes the booking, in the same manner as for his own to the extent that he has assumed this obligation in an express and separate statement.
- c) If the content of the notice of acceptance from VIVA Cruises deviates from the content of the booking, VIVA Cruises is deemed to have made a new offer, by which VIVA Cruises is bound for a period of ten days. The contract is concluded on the basis of this new offer provided that VIVA Cruises has pointed out the changes with respect to the new offer and complied with its pre-contractual obligation to provide information and if the customer declares his acceptance thereof to VIVA Cruises within the aforementioned binding period by express statement or by effecting the down payment.
- d) Travel agents (e.g. tourist agencies) and service providers (e.g. carriers) are not authorized to make agreements, provide information or give assurances which alter the agreed content of the Package Travel Contract, go beyond the services contractually promised by VIVA Cruises or contradict the travel proposal.
- e) VIVA Cruises notifies the customer of his rights under data privacy laws on the separate data privacy information sheets and asks him to take note of them.

1.2 The following applies to bookings made orally, by telephone, in writing, by email, text message or fax:

- a) With his booking (travel registration) the customer submits a binding offer to VIVA Cruises for the conclusion of the Package Travel Contract ("Contract" or "Package Travel Contract").
- b) The Contract is concluded upon receipt of the booking confirmation (notice of acceptance) by VIVA Cruises. It does not require any particular form. Upon or immediately after conclusion of the Contract, VIVA Cruises will send the customer a travel confirmation in writing or in text form.

1.3 The following applies with regard to the conclusion of the Contract to bookings by way of electronic business transactions (e.g. Internet, apps, telemedia³):

- a) The process of online booking is explained to the customer on the respective application.
- b) The customer has the option to make corrections (with explanations provided of how to use this option) for correcting his entries, deleting or resetting the entire booking form.
- c) The contractual languages offered for online booking are specified.
- d) If the text of the Contract is stored by VIVA Cruises, the customer will be informed accordingly, including the possibility of later retrieval of the text of the Contract.
- e) By pressing the button "booking subject to payment", the customer submits a binding offer to VIVA Cruises for the conclusion of the Package Travel Contract.
- f) The customer will immediately receive confirmation of receipt of his booking (travel registration) by electronic means (confirmation of receipt).
- g) The transmission of the booking (travel registration) by pressing the button "booking subject to payment" does not establish a claim of the customer for the conclusion of a Package Travel Contract in accordance with his booking (travel registration). The Contract is concluded upon receipt of the booking confirmation from VIVA Cruises by the customer provided on a permanent data medium.
- h) If the booking is confirmed immediately after pressing the button "booking subject to payment" by a display of the booking confirmation directly on the screen, then the Package Travel Contract has been concluded with the display of this booking confirmation. In this case, there is no need for an interim notification of the receipt of the booking according to lit. f) above, provided that the customer is offered the option to save the booking confirmation on a permanent data medium and to print it. However, the binding nature of the Package Travel Contract does not depend on the customer actually using these options for saving or printing the confirmation.

1.4 VIVA Cruises points out that according the law (Sections 312 Paragraph 7, 312g Paragraph 2 Sentence 1 No. 9 German Civil Code (Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch; "BGB") package travel contracts pursuant to Sections 651a and 651c BGB entered into as distance contracts (letters, catalogues, telephone calls, faxes, email, text messages sent by cell phone as well as radio, telemedia and online services) are not subject to the customer's right of withdrawal from the Contract but only to the customer's statutory rights of cancellation and termination, in particular the right of cancellation pursuant to section 651h BGB (see also Clause 5 in this respect). There is a right of withdrawal, however, if the contract for travel services according to Section 651a BGB was entered into outside business premises, unless the oral negotiations, on which the conclusion of the contract is based, were conducted on the basis of a prior order of the consumer; in that latter case, the right of withdrawal does not apply.

2. Payment

2.1 VIVA Cruises has insolvency insurance (customer finance guarantor contract) with tourVERS to cover the travel price to be paid by the customer. A guarantee certificate will be attached to the travel confirmation, to the copy of the Contract or their back. VIVA Cruises and travel agents may only demand or accept payments on account of the travel price before the end of the Package Tour if an effective customer finance guarantor contract is in place and the customer has been provided with tourVERS's name and contact details in a clear and comprehensible manner, with that information highlighted. After conclusion of the Contract and handing over of the guarantee certificate, a down payment of 20% of the travel price becomes due for payment. The balance is due 30 days prior to the commencement of the Tour, provided that the guarantee certificate has been handed over and the Package Travel Contract can no longer be cancelled for the reason stated in Clause 8.1.

2.2 If the customer does not make the down payment and/or the payment of the balance in accordance with the agreed payment due dates even though VIVA Cruises is ready and in a position to properly perform its contractual services, has complied with its legal obligation to provide information, and the customer has no statutory or contractual right of retention, VIVA Cruises is entitled to cancel the Package Travel Contract after a reminder setting a deadline, and to charge the customer cancellation costs in accordance with Clause 5.2 sentence 2, to Clause 5.6.

3. Changes to the contents of the contract prior to the commencement of the tour not affecting the travel price

- 3.1 VIVA Cruises is permitted to deviate prior to the commencement of the Tour from the agreed content of the Package Travel Contract with respect to essential features of travel services, where such deviations become necessary after conclusion of the Contract and were not brought about by VIVA Cruises in bad faith, provided that such deviations are insignificant in nature and will not impair the overall Package Tour.
- 3.2 VIVA Cruises is entitled to in particular but not limited to make changes in travel times, routes and/or means of transport which become necessary due to the special conditions affecting travel by ship, due to security reasons or weather conditions or high or low water, due to orders issued by authorities (e.g. travel warnings issued by the Federal Foreign Office, restrictions due to an epidemic), for the protection of the health and safety of employees, crew and/or customers (e.g. from an epidemic) or for other reasons for which VIVA Cruises is not responsible, provided that these are minor changes only that will not affect the overall character of the Tour.
- 3.3 VIVA Cruises is obliged to inform the customer of any change to the travel services without undue delay after knowledge of its reason, on a permanent data medium (e.g. including an email, text message or voice message) in a clear and comprehensible manner, with that information highlighted.
- 3.4 In the event of a significant change of an essential feature of a travel service or a deviation from special specifications of the customers, which have become part of the Package Travel Contract, the customer is entitled to the following within the reasonable period set by VIVA Cruises in the notification of the change:
- either accept the change;
 - or cancel the Package Travel Contract at no charge;
 - or request participation in a substitute tour if VIVA Cruises offered one.

The customer has the option to respond or not to respond to VIVA Cruises' notification. If the customer responds to VIVA Cruises, he may either agree with the change of the Contract, request his participation in a substitute tour if one is offered to him, or cancel the Contract at no charge. If the customer fails to respond to VIVA Cruises or fails to do so within the period set, the notified change shall be deemed to have been accepted.

The customer must be made aware of this in a clear and comprehensible manner, with that information highlighted, in the notification pursuant to Clause 3.3 above.

- 3.5 Should the changed services be defective, potential warranty claims shall remain unaffected. If VIVA Cruises had lower costs for the performance of the changed or substitute tour for equivalent quality, the customer must be reimbursed in the amount of the difference in accordance with Section 651m Paragraph 2 BGB.

4. Price changes after conclusion of contract

- 4.1 VIVA Cruises reserves the right to change the price agreed in the Package Travel Contract in the event that the increase in the travel price results directly from an increase occurring after conclusion of the Contract in the price for the carriage of passengers due to higher costs for fuel or other energy sources (costs of carriage), taxes and other charges for agreed services such as tourist taxes, port or airport charges or air passenger taxes or a change in the exchange rates applicable to the relevant Package occurring after conclusion of the Contract, as follows:
- a) If the underlying costs of carriage (in particular fuel costs) increase after conclusion of the Package Travel Contract, VIVA Cruises may increase the travel price according to the following calculation:
- In the case of an increase related to the seat or bed, VIVA Cruises may charge the amount of the increase to the customer.
 - In other cases, the additional costs of carriage charged by the carrier per means of transport are divided by the number of seats or beds of the agreed means of transport. The amount of the increase resulting from that calculation may be charged by VIVA Cruises to the customer for the individual seat or bed.
- b) If taxes and other levies such as tourist taxes, port/airport charges or air passenger taxes applicable at the time of conclusion of the Package Travel Contract charged to VIVA Cruises are increased, the travel price may be increased by the corresponding proportional amount.
- c) In the event of a change in the exchange rates after conclusion of the Package Travel Contract, the travel price may be increased to the extent that the Package has become more expensive for VIVA Cruises as a result.
- d) In the event of a subsequent change in the travel price, VIVA Cruises must inform the customer without undue delay in a clear and comprehensible manner on a permanent data medium (e.g. an email) about the price increase, its reasons and the calculation of the increase. The price may not be increased less than 20 days before the commencement of the Tour.
- e) VIVA Cruises may not unilaterally increase prices by more than 8%. VIVA Cruises shall offer the customer the price increase and request that the customer either accept it within a reasonable period of time or cancel the Contract at no cost. The offer to increase the price may not be made less than 20 days before the commencement of the Tour. VIVA Cruises may also offer the customer to participate in another Package (substitute). The customer has no legal claim to this option. Upon expiry of the period specified by VIVA Cruises, the offer to amend the Contract shall be deemed accepted. The acceptance by the customer of any substitute VIVA Cruises may offer requires the customer's express notice of acceptance to VIVA Cruises.
- 4.2 At the customer's request, VIVA Cruises is obliged to reduce the travel price if and to the extent that the costs of carriage, taxes or exchange rates referred to in Clause 4.1 have changed after conclusion of the Contract and before the commencement of the Tour to such extent that the Package comes at a lower cost to VIVA Cruises. If the customer has paid more than the amount owed as a result, VIVA Cruises shall refund the excess amount, while VIVA Cruises is entitled to deduct the actual administrative expenses incurred. At the customer's request, VIVA Cruises shall provide evidence of the amount of administrative expenses incurred.

5. Cancellation of the contract by the customer prior to commencement of the tour/cancellation costs

- 5.1 The customer may cancel the Package at any time prior to the commencement of the Tour. The cancellation must be expressed by notice given to VIVA Cruises. If the Package was booked through a travel agent, the notice of cancellation may also be given to the agent. It is recommended that the customer give his notice of cancellation in text form on a permanent data medium.
- 5.2 If the customer cancels prior to the commencement of the Tour or does not set out on the Package Tour, VIVA Cruises loses the right to claim the travel price. Instead, VIVA Cruises may claim appropriate compensation if VIVA Cruises is not responsible for the cancellation or if unavoidable, extraordinary circumstances occur at or in the immediate vicinity of the destination which significantly impair the performance of the Package Tour or the carriage of passengers to the destination. Circumstances shall be deemed unavoidable and extraordinary if they are not under the control of the party that invokes them and their consequences could not have been avoided even if all reasonable precautions had been taken.
- 5.3 VIVA Cruises has determined the following lump sum compensation, taking into account the period between the notice of cancellation and the commencement of the Tour as well as the expected cost savings and the expected earnings by the use of the travel services in another way. The compensation shall be calculated as follows after the date of receipt of the notice of cancellation:
- up to 120 days prior to the commencement of the Tour 10%,
 - from the 119th to the 90th day prior to the commencement of the Tour 20%,
 - from the 89th to the 30th day prior to the commencement of the Tour 40%,
 - from the 29th to the 15th day prior to the commencement of the Tour 60%,
 - from the 14th to the 1st day prior to the commencement of the Tour 80% of the travel price,
 - Cancellation on the date of the Tour or failure to set out on the Package Tour: 90% of the travel price.
- 5.4 In any case, the customer is at liberty to prove to VIVA Cruises that VIVA Cruises has incurred no damage or a substantially lower damage than the lump sum claimed by VIVA Cruises.
- 5.5 VIVA Cruises reserves the right to claim a higher compensation instead of the above lump sums, calculated individually on the basis of the travel price less the value of the costs saved by VIVA Cruises and less what VIVA Cruises earns through the use of the travel services in another way. In this case, VIVA Cruises is obliged to justify upon the customer's request the amount of the compensation claimed.
- 5.6 If, in the case of a jointly booked double cabin, one passenger paying full fare cancels prior to the commencement of the Tour, with the consequence that the double cabin is now used as a single cabin, VIVA Cruises is entitled to the compensation specified under 5.3, but at least to a lump sum compensation in the amount of the surcharge otherwise payable for a single cabin at the time of booking. The same applies if a customer paying full fare cancels a cabin booked for several passengers, so that a cabin, which is originally intended for three or four people, is used by fewer people.
- 5.7 If VIVA Cruises is obliged to reimburse the travel price (if already paid) as a result of the cancellation, VIVA Cruises shall reimburse it without undue delay, but in any case within 14 days of the cancellation.
- 5.8 VIVA Cruises strongly recommends that the customer take out travel cancellation insurance and luggage and travel accident insurance (in the event that interruption of travel, e.g. due to an accident, becomes necessary).

6. Change of reservation

- 6.1 After conclusion of the Contract, the customer is not entitled to changes with regard to the travel date, the destination, place of departure, accommodation or the mode of carriage (rebooking). This shall not apply if the rebooking is required because VIVA Cruises failed to provide the customer with pre-contractual information as defined in Art. 250 Paragraph 3 Introductory Act to the Civil Code ("EGBGB"), or provided insufficient or erroneous pre-contractual information; in this case, rebooking is allowed free of charge. If, in all other cases, a rebooking is nevertheless made at the customer's request at least 90 days prior to commencement of the Tour, VIVA Cruises may charge a rebooking fee of 50€ per customer. In individual cases, e.g. where flights are involved, the additional rebooking costs may be considerably higher.
- 6.2 Any rebooking requests made by the customer after expiry of the 90-day period, if possible at all, requires the cancellation of the Package Travel Contract in accordance with the terms set forth in Clauses 5.2 to 5.7 with simultaneous new registration. This does not apply to rebooking requests that cause only negligible costs.
- 6.3 Any airline charges for the correction of names on airline tickets that have already been issued (as opposed to a change of the passenger) may be passed on to the customer. In addition to this, VIVA Cruises may also charge a rebooking fee of 50€ in these cases.
- 6.4 The customer may make a declaration to VIVA Cruises up to 7 days in advance of the commencement of the Tour that not the customer himself but a third party will join the Package Travel Contract as a party to the Contract, assuming all rights and obligations thereunder. This declaration must be made on a durable medium (paper or electronic). VIVA Cruises is entitled to object to the third party joining the Contract if that third party is not in compliance with the contractual requirements for the Tour. If a third party joins the Contract, this third party and the customer shall be liable to VIVA Cruises as joint and several debtors for the travel price and the additional costs incurred due to the third party joining the Contract. These additional costs must be appropriate and must have actually been incurred, which VIVA Cruises shall prove to the customer.
- 6.5 Rebooking fees are due and payable immediately.

7. Services not used

- 7.1. If the customer does not make use of individual travel services properly provided to him for reasons attributable to him (e.g. premature return or for other compelling reasons), he is not entitled to a pro rata refund of the travel price, unless such reasons would have entitled him to cancel or terminate the Package Travel Contract free of charge in accordance with the law. VIVA Cruises will endeavor to reimburse the expenses saved by the service providers. This obligation shall not apply in the case of entirely insignificant services.

8. Minimum number of participants not reached/Cancellation by VIVA Cruises prior to the commencement of the Tour

- 8.1 The minimum number of participants for all VIVA Cruises Package Tours is 80 persons.
If the minimum number of participants is not reached, VIVA Cruises may cancel the Package Travel Contract only if VIVA Cruises has

- a) specified the minimum number of participants in the pre-contractual information and has given the latest date by which the notification must be received by the customer prior to the contractually agreed commencement of the Tour; and
- b) specified the minimum number of participants and the latest date for cancellation in the travel confirmation.

Notice of cancellation must be given to the customer by the 31st day prior to the agreed commencement of the Tour at the latest, but in any event no later than by the date indicated to the customer in the pre-contractual information and the travel confirmation. Should it become apparent at an earlier point in time that the minimum number of participants cannot be reached, VIVA Cruises must exercise its cancellation right without undue delay.

- 8.2 VIVA Cruises may also cancel the Package Travel Contract prior to the commencement of the Tour if VIVA Cruises is prevented from fulfilling the Contract due to unavoidable extraordinary circumstances. Circumstances are unavoidable and extraordinary if they are beyond the control of the party invoking them and their consequences could not have been prevented even if all reasonable precautions had been taken. Unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances are e.g. wars, civil wars, natural disasters, occurring epidemics (in particular the Covid-19 epidemic), terrorist attacks as well as official orders issued after the conclusion of the Contract, entry bans (in particular due to epidemics) and travel warnings of the Foreign Office for the destination or an intermediate destination of the Tour. Notice of cancellation according to this Clause 8.2 must be given to the customer without undue delay upon becoming aware of the reason for the cancellation. VIVA Cruises may cancel the Package Travel Contract if it is necessary, for economic reasons, for the vessel intended to be used for the Tour to be redeployed elsewhere (e.g. in the event of it being exclusively chartered by a third party). Notice of cancellation must be given to the customer by the 31st day prior to the agreed commencement of the Tour at the latest. Should it become apparent at an earlier point in time that the vessel intended to be used for the Tour must be redeployed elsewhere, VIVA Cruises must exercise its cancellation right without undue delay. Notice of cancellation according to this Clause 8.2 must be given to the customer without undue delay upon becoming aware of the reason for the cancellation.
- 8.3 If VIVA Cruises cancels the Contract in accordance with above Clause 8.1 or 8.2, VIVA Cruises loses the right to claim the agreed travel price. If it has already been (partially) paid, VIVA Cruises shall refund the payments made without undue delay, but in any case, within 14 days. There is no right to claim additional compensation in the event of cancellation in accordance with Clauses 8.1 and 8.2.

9. Rescission/Termination of contract by VIVA Cruises for reasons related to behavior, illness, or pregnancy

In the following cases, VIVA Cruises may rescind the Package Travel Contract in whole or in part without notice prior to the commencement of the journey, or terminate the Package Travel Contract in whole or in part without notice after the commencement of the journey:

- a) If the customer, in the judgement of the captain, where applicable, after having consulted the ship's physician,
 - is unfit to travel due to illness, infirmity, or for any other reason;
 - needs to be accompanied but travels unaccompanied;
 - is a danger to the health of other passengers, crew members, and employees of VIVA Cruises (e.g. due to contagion or threat of epidemic spread, e.g. Covid-19) ;
 - has booked by providing false information
 - notwithstanding a warning from VIVA Cruises, causes permanent or repeated disturbance or behaves contrary to the Contract to such an extent that the immediate cancellation of the Contract in whole or in part is justified;
- b) in the event of pregnancy, if the customer is in her 24th week of pregnancy or beyond at the time of departure or if she reaches the 24th week of pregnancy during the voyage. In these cases, the carriage is excluded for safety reasons and due to limited medical care on board VIVA Cruises vessels. If the customer could not have known this at the time of booking, VIVA Cruises will reimburse the travel price already paid if notified immediately after the customer becoming aware of the pregnancy. If such notification is culpably delayed, VIVA Cruises reserves the right to make a claim in accordance with Clause 5. Expectant mothers less than 24 weeks pregnant at the time of embarkation must present a specialist (gynecological) certificate of fitness to travel confirming the navigated area. If VIVA Cruises terminates or rescinds the Contract for any of the reasons specified under a) above, the customer may be entirely or partially excluded from the (continuation of the) Tour. VIVA Cruises retains the right to claim the travel price; however, VIVA Cruises must take into account the value of the cost savings as well as those benefits that VIVA Cruises obtains from the use of the travel services in another way, including the credits VIVA Cruises receives from the service providers. Any additional costs incurred for the return trip shall be borne by the customer.

10. Duties of the customer to cooperate

10.1 Travel documents

The customer must inform VIVA Cruises if he has not received the required travel documents (e.g. flight ticket, train ticket, hotel voucher) within the period specified by VIVA Cruises.

10.2 Notice of defects / Request for remedy of defects

If the Package Tour is not provided free from travel defects, the customer may claim remedial action. If the customer culpably fails to notify VIVA Cruises immediately of a travel defect and VIVA Cruises was therefore unable to remedy the situation, the customer is not entitled to assert claims for reduction in price according to Section 651m BGB or claims for damages according to Section 651n BGB. This shall not apply only if the notice of defect is clearly futile or unreasonable for other reasons. The customer is obliged to notify the representative of VIVA Cruises at the holiday destination of the defect without undue delay, i.e. the tour guide on board or on site. If the tour guide is not available, or if there is no tour guide and none is owed under the Contract, any travel defects must be reported to VIVA Cruises at its registered office under the contact information provided. Information on how to contact the tour guide or VIVA Cruises is included in the booking confirmation or is provided at the latest with the travel documents. The tour guide is charged with remedying the situation, provided this is possible and does not entail disproportionate costs, taking into account the extent of the defect and the value of the travel service concerned. If VIVA Cruises/the tour guide invoke the impossibility or economic inefficiency of the remedy for a considerable part of the travel services, VIVA Cruises shall, if possible, offer the customer an appropriate, equivalent alternative service comparable to the service agreed upon in the Contract. The tour guide is not authorized to recognize claims.

10.3 Period allowed for remedy prior to termination of Contract

If the Package Tour is substantially impaired by a defect and a customer wishes to terminate the Package Travel Contract according to Section 651l BGB due to a defect of the kind described in Section 651i Paragraph 2 BGB, provided that it is substantial, he first has to set VIVA Cruises an appropriate period for remedy. This shall not apply if immediate remedy is necessary or the remedy is refused by VIVA Cruises.

10.4 Clauses 10.1 and 10.2 are only applicable to package travel contracts concluded before 8 March 2020. Regarding all package travel contracts concluded after 8 March 2020 Article 240 § 6 EGBGB shall apply.

10.5 Damage to, and delayed delivery of, luggage in air travel; special rules and periods for seeking redress

- a) The customer is advised that any delayed, lost or damaged luggage in connection with air travel must be reported by the customer in accordance with air traffic regulations to the relevant airline without undue delay on the spot by means of a damage report (P.I.R.). Airlines and tour operators may refuse refunds on the basis of international treaties if the damage report has not been completed. In the event of damage to luggage, the damage report must be filed within 7 days and in the event of delay within 21 days of delivery.
- b) In addition, the loss, damage or misdirection of luggage must be reported without undue delay to the representative of VIVA Cruises (tour guide) or VIVA Cruises. This shall not release the customer from filing a damage report with the airline pursuant to lit. a) above within the periods stated above.

11. Limitation of liability

11.1 The contractual liability of VIVA Cruises for damages which do not arise from loss of life, bodily injury or damage to health and which were not culpably (intentionally or negligently) caused is limited to three times the travel price. This maximum liability amount applies per customer and per journey. Any further claims under the Montreal Convention or the Air Traffic Act shall remain unaffected by the limitation.

11.2 VIVA Cruises is not liable for disruptions to services, personal injury and damage to property in connection with services which are merely arranged by VIVA Cruises and actually provided by third parties ("Third-Party Services", e.g. excursions, sports events, theatre visits, exhibitions, transport services from and to the specified place of departure and destination) if these services are expressly marked as Third-Party Services in the travel description and booking confirmation stating the arranged contractual partner in such a clear manner that the customer is able to recognize that these services are not part of the travel services provided by VIVA Cruises. Sections 651b, 651c, 651w and 651y BGB shall remain unaffected. However, VIVA Cruises shall be liable if and to the extent that the violation of VIVA Cruises' duties of information, clarification or organization were the cause of damage to the customer.

11.3 If international agreements or statutory provisions based on such agreements apply to a travel service to be provided by a service provider, according to which a claim for damages can only arise or be asserted under certain conditions or restrictions or is excluded under certain conditions, VIVA Cruises, in its capacity as the tour operator, may invoke the same in its dealings with the customer.

11.4 Where VIVA Cruises acts in the capacity of a contractual or performing carrier with regard to the voyage or VIVA Cruises is regarded as such according to statutory provisions, VIVA Cruises shall be liable according to the specifically applicable statutory provisions (in particular according to the provisions of the German Inland Waterways Act and the German Commercial Code).

11.5 Where VIVA Cruises acts in the capacity of a contractual or performing air carrier with regard to carriage by air or VIVA Cruises is regarded as such according to statutory provisions, VIVA Cruises' liability shall be governed by the specifically applicable statutory provisions or those stipulated in international agreements (including the German Air Traffic Act, the Montreal Convention).

11.6 VIVA Cruises shall not be liable for damage to or loss of personal items (e.g. photographic or film equipment, clothing, jewelry or other valuables) caused by theft, getting lost in any other manner, or excessive physical loads or stresses occurring off board the vessel, unless the damage or loss is due to intentional or grossly negligent conduct on the part of VIVA Cruises. Any and all liability is also excluded for storage or transport in the vehicles used for onshore activities or transfers, unless intentional or grossly negligent conduct on the part of VIVA Cruises has resulted in the damage or loss. VIVA Cruises shall be liable for damage to or loss of cabin luggage in accordance with the provisions of the German Commercial Code. Jewelry, cash, or other valuables must be safely stored and transported in the carry-on luggage during arrival and departure (not in the checked luggage).

- 11.7 If a claim is made against an employee or agent of VIVA Cruises for damage incurred in connection with the carriage, this employee or agent may, provided he proves that he acted in the performance of his duties, invoke the defenses and limitations of liability which apply to VIVA Cruises under these travel conditions.

12. Limitation of actions, assertion of claims

- 12.1 The claims of the customer specified in Section 651i Paragraph 3 BGB shall be time-barred in accordance with Section 651j BGB in two years.
- 12.2 The limitation period starts to run on the day on which the Package Tour is scheduled to end according to the Contract. If the last day of that period falls on a Sunday, a public holiday recognized by the state at the place where the notice is given, or a Saturday, the next business day shall take the place of such a day.
- 12.3 Claims pursuant to Section 651i Paragraph 3 No. 2, 4-7 BGB must be lodged by the customer with VIVA Cruises. It is recommended to lodge the claim in writing on a permanent data medium.
- 12.4 If negotiations between the customer and VIVA Cruises about the claim or the circumstances substantiating the claim are pending, the limitation period shall be suspended until the customer or VIVA Cruises refuses to continue the negotiations. The limitation occurs at the earliest three months after the end of the suspension.
- 12.5 In the case of damage to, or delays in the delivery of, luggage in connection with flights in accordance with Clause 10.4, the following shall apply: A claim for damages due to damage to luggage must be asserted within 7 days, a claim for damages due to delayed luggage within 21 days after delivery.
- 12.6 The travel agency only acts as an agent when the travel Contract is concluded. It is not authorized to accept the filing of warranty and compensation claims by the customer after the end of the trip.
- 12.7 Without the consent of VIVA Cruises, customers may not transfer claims against VIVA Cruises to third parties, either in whole or in part. This does not apply among accompanying family members.

13. Carriage by air and obligation to provide information on the identity of the operating air carrier

- 13.1 If the Tour involves air carriage, this portion of the Tour shall be governed by the terms and conditions of the airline operating the respective flights (cf. also Clause 11.5 regarding liability), which terms and conditions will be provided by VIVA Cruises on request. The scheduling of these special flights depends on the availability of the airplanes on the charter market and the authorization by air-traffic control; therefore, early morning or late-night departures or arrivals may therefore occur.
- 13.2 The EU regulation on informing air transport passengers of the identity of the operating air carrier puts VIVA Cruises under the obligation to inform the customer of the identity of the operating air carrier for any and all air transport services to be provided within the scope of the booked Package at the time of booking. If the operating airline has not yet been determined at the time of booking, VIVA Cruises is obliged to inform the customer of the airline(s) which is/are likely to operate the flight(s). VIVA Cruises must inform the customer accordingly as soon as VIVA Cruises knows which airline will operate the flight. If due to changes another airline than the one specified to the customer will be the operating airline, VIVA Cruises must inform the customer accordingly. VIVA Cruises must immediately take all reasonable steps to ensure that the customer is informed of any such changes as soon as possible. The list of airlines banned from operating within the EU ("Black List") is available on the following website: https://ec.europa.eu/transport/modes/air/safety/air-ban_en

14. Rail booking

- 14.1 All train tickets booked through VIVA Cruises can only be booked in connection with a package tour offered by VIVA Cruises.
- 14.2 The train tickets booked through VIVA Cruises must be carried on the Tour and presented upon ticket control on the train.
- 14.3 If the customer books a train ticket to the airport through VIVA Cruises, the customer must choose his train ride such that he reaches the airport as scheduled at least three hours prior to the departure of the flight. If the customer books a train ticket to the port, departure must be chosen such that he reaches the ship at least three hours prior to its specified departure. If these time periods are not complied with and if the customer is responsible for such non-compliance, VIVA Cruises shall not be liable for any possible consequential damages.
- 14.4 The train ride booked through VIVA Cruises is an integral part of the Package Tour. Any claims due to delays, train cancellations or other deficiencies of the train ride can be asserted either against VIVA Cruises or directly against DB Dialog GmbH, Servicenter Fahrgastrechte, 60647 Frankfurt, Germany. For this purpose, the completed passenger rights form (Fahrgastrechte-Formular), the original train ticket, the certificate of delay, and, if applicable, any other original receipts for which the customer requires reimbursement must be submitted.

15. Passport, visa and health regulations

- 15.1 The customer must comply with all laws, regulations, directions or provisions of travel (rules and regulations) of the countries and ports affected by the Tour, and with all instructions issued by VIVA Cruises and its agents. VIVA Cruises shall inform customers who are citizens of EU members states about general passport and visa requirements as well as formalities required by health authorities of the country of destination, including the approximate deadlines for obtaining visas, prior to the conclusion of the Contract and any changes thereto prior to departure. Citizens of other countries may obtain that information from the competent consulate. This always under the assumption that no special circumstances apply to the person of the customer and any accompanying persons (such as dual citizenship, statelessness).
- 15.2 The customer is responsible for obtaining and carrying the travel documents required by the authorities (such as visa, vaccination certificates, online travel permits such as the ESTA authorization for US travel), any necessary vaccinations and compliance with customs and foreign exchange regulations. Any loss arising from non-compliance with these regulations, e.g. the payment of cancellation costs, fines, penalties and expenses, shall be borne by the customer, unless VIVA Cruises has not provided any, or only has provided insufficient or incorrect, information. If VIVA Cruises has to pay or deposit sums of money in this connection, the customer is obliged to reimburse those immediately.

15.3 Additional costs (e.g. for additional catering on board) that arise due to a quarantine for which VIVA Cruises is not responsible are to be borne or reimbursed by the customer.

15.4 In the event that the customer fails to comply with the entry rules of individual countries or visa are not granted in time due to the customer's fault, so that the customer is unable to participate in the Tour for that reason, VIVA Cruises may charge the customer with the cancellation fees in accordance with Clause 5. In this case, the customer has the right to prove to VIVA Cruises that no damage has occurred or that the damage is significantly lower than the lump-sum compensation.

16. Information for persons with reduced mobility and other restrictions

16.1 VIVA Cruises wishes to ensure that customers with physical disabilities can enjoy a pleasant journey on board the ships of its fleet. For this purpose, VIVA Cruises must be informed of any special requests and needs of the customer due to physical impairments before booking. VIVA Cruises will then always endeavor to help the customer achieve the best possible travel experience, in particular by checking the suitability of the Package Tour requested by the customer and providing the customer with more detailed information in this respect.

16.2 The safety of the customer has priority at VIVA Cruises. For this reason, all customers who are deaf, in a wheelchair, blind or whose vision is considerably impaired despite vision aids, have to inform VIVA Cruises of their restrictions before booking. Together, we can then ponder the measures that are necessary to ensure the safety of the customer on board and for any planned excursions (e.g. accompanying person on the journey). If the restrictions only occur after booking, the customer must inform VIVA Cruises in good time so that any necessary measures can be agreed for the safety of the customer.

17. Refusal of landing permit, cost of onward journey

If the landing or entry of the customer and/or the import of his luggage in the designated port or country is refused, VIVA Cruises may transport the customer and/or his luggage to another port or country called at by the vessel and disembark them there. The customer must pay VIVA Cruises a fee corresponding to the onward journey and compensate VIVA Cruises for all other expenses incurred in connection therewith. These terms and conditions of travel shall also apply to such onward journey.

18. Assistance, salvage

VIVA Cruises shall be entitled to provide assistance to other ships, to tow and salvage ships with the vessel used. All such activities, whether previously announced or not, shall be deemed part of the Tour.

19. Medical care

The services of the ship's physician – if one is carried onboard - are not part of the Package Travel Contract. In each case, the patient concludes a separate treatment contract with the ship's physician. Only the costs of treatment resulting from an accident caused by VIVA Cruises or its employees on board or during an onshore activity organized by VIVA Cruises shall be borne by VIVA Cruises.

20. Applicable law, jurisdiction, alternative dispute resolution

20.1 These Standard Terms and Conditions and the legal relationship as a whole between VIVA Cruises and the customer are subject to the substantive law of the Federal Republic of Germany.

20.2 The place of jurisdiction for legal actions against VIVA Cruises is Düsseldorf. The place of residence of the customer shall govern the place of jurisdiction for any legal action brought by VIVA Cruises against the customer. As regards actions against customers who are merchants [as defined in the German Commercial Code], legal entities under public or private law, or persons who have their residence or habitual abode abroad, or whose residence or habitual abode is unknown at the time of bringing the action, Düsseldorf shall be agreed as the place of jurisdiction.

20.3 The provisions set forth above shall not apply

- a) if and to the extent that provisions of international agreements applicable to this contractual relationship, which cannot be contracted away, provide otherwise in favor of the customer, or
- b) if and to the extent that provisions of a member state of the EU to which the customer belongs, which are applicable to the Package Travel Contract and cannot be contracted away, are more favorable to the customer than these provisions or the corresponding German statutory provisions.

20.4 With a view to the German Consumer Dispute Resolution Act, VIVA Cruises points out that it is not participating in voluntary consumer dispute resolution. Should consumer dispute resolution become mandatory for VIVA Cruises after the printing of these travel conditions, VIVA Cruises will inform the customer accordingly in an appropriate manner. VIVA Cruises refers to the European online dispute resolution platform at <https://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr/> for all travel contracts entered into by electronic legal transaction. VIVA Cruises is not currently participating in this voluntary procedure.
